

The Social Hall is directly below the Chapel and seats 100 people comfortably at tables, or provides room for 180 people at a stand-up reception. It also looks out at the pond, woods, and a quarter-mile secluded boardwalk nature trail through the marsh. The Social Hall has a full kitchen, and an art exhibit is usually displayed on its walls.

Beautiful outdoor decks, many dressing and conference rooms, three sets of restrooms, a playground, and a nursery are also a part of the facility. Our grounds are sheltered by large oaks, have adequate off-street parking, and provide a lovely setting for any occasion.

The Unitarian Universalist Church of Jacksonville provides a beautiful and gracious setting for your personal spiritual ceremony or gala event. We are centrally and conveniently located at 7405 Arlington Expressway, on the north access road between Alderman Road and Arlington Road.

The Chapel seats up to 180 people. Prominent local architect Bob Broward, a student of Frank Lloyd Wright, designed our buildings. The view from the Chapel is breathtaking. Its glass wall overlooks our pond, marsh, beautiful trees, wildlife and flowers. A 30-foot tapestry, created especially for this site by acclaimed artist Memphis Wood, hangs in the center between the windows.

Our minister, your own clergy, or another authorized person may perform the ceremony.

To discuss having our minister officiate at your ceremony, you may call Rev. Dr. John L. Young at 725-8133. Normally, the minister will meet with the engaged couple at least twice in preparation for a wedding or union ceremony. This will provide the time to develop your own unique and personalized ceremony, respecting your special needs and your individual ideas. Please call to discuss the ministerial fee.

For other occasions, our minister and facilities can assist with an infant or child dedication, reconfirmation of a marriage or union, or a memorial service, funeral or other ceremony.

Would you like more information? If you are considering renting our facilities for your event, please call 725-8133 to check available dates or to make an appointment to see our lovely building and grounds. We look forward to showing them to you. (If no one answers, please leave a message and your call will be returned promptly.)
